

Karen's Story:

I cared for my mother, who had Alzheimer's. In addition, I am an Occupational Therapist who has been working directly in Memory Care since 2004. Initially in an all-dementia skilled nursing community until 2011. Since then with a home health agency, and responsible for training across the country with my company.